Dear Parents / Carers and Children,

I have thoroughly enjoyed my last two weeks at Morgans and now look forward to my new life in Dorset. I must confess that up until now I felt like a bit like a lodger in my cottage as I was only there for short breaks. I can now get to grips with the barn and the garden.

Sailing with some of our Year 5 people at Barton last week was exhausting but rewarding. The children were a delight, as usual, and they had a wonderful time, despite the wind being too gusty to sail as much as we would have hoped. Nevertheless, the children did get to sail each day, and much fun was had sailing down Barton Broad using only the jib sheet. As ever, the school is greatly indebted to the small army of adult volunteers who have made this activity possible over the past 26 years. Incidentally they are also good company and I will miss them greatly.

The Year 6 Dracula Rock Show was a fitting finale for our leavers. The children sang, acted and danced with great enthusiasm, to the delight of a very full house of proud family and friends. It was wonderful to see how our "Millennium babies" have grown and flourished into confident young people who are obviously poised and ready for their next exciting stage in life.

I had a brilliant, if rather overwhelming party yesterday evening. I had the chance to say thank you and goodbye to much valued colleagues and governors past and present. Thank you so much for the gifts, cards and good wishes which I have received over the past few days, they will be a reminder of a very happy and rewarding time of my life.

I look forward to hearing of the future successes and adventures at Morgans under the capable leadership of, Clare McFlynn and then in January, Alison Pepper.

Enjoy the holidays and have fun.

Kind regards

Sue Dutt

Dracula Spectacular

Year 6 performed their leavers' play 'The Dracula Rock Show' on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and coped well with the late challenge of a lengthy script and numerous songs. Both the adult and school audiences enjoyed the performances greatly. Very well done and 'fang-k you' to all of the cast and their teachers for orchestrating the production and to all who made the fantastic set.

All at Morgans wish you a safe and wonderful summer break!
We look forward to welcoming you back on Tuesday 6th September...
